LITTLE WRITER'S EDITION

Why gymnastics is great - By Emily C.

To me gymnastics is a great sport. I know this because I do gymnastics.

It's not just girls either boy do stuff like p-bars and rings and other things. There are also instructors who are boys and therefore boys will feel more included. It's the same with how girls feel with soccer.

Secondly it's so much fun and not expensive either. You get to move up levels and you learn harder tricks such as back handsprings and backflips. It's really fun and everyone gets a go at everything for an equal amount of time. There are lots of different types of gymnastics, for example rhythmic, acrobatic and trampoline.

Thirdly you start competition and while your there you could make new friends and you can get better every day and you might win a medal to!

I feel that gymnastics is really fun in my opinion. I think that you should in-roll in gymnastics.

PHIL COLLINS & THE THREE BEARS

Once upon a time Phil Collins was walking in the woods singing to himself. Before he knew it, he was at the front of the three bears house. "Is anyone there?" he said. No one answered, so he went inside.

He went inside the house. He thought it was a cute little cottage. He looked out the window and saw the three bears walking in the forest. I will cook some pasta for them he thought, so when they come back from their walk, lunch will be ready. So he started cooking. He decided to get changed into a Phil Collins merchandise T-shirt which he had in a bag. So when the three bears come home it will be a BIG shock to see Phil Collins there. When the three bears came home the baby bear said "Mummy Daddy it's Phil Collins". The three bears started talking to Phil Collins. Shortly after lunch was ready, Baby Bear was really happy that it is pasta. He loves pasta. They all sat down to eat. "Thanks Phil" said Baby Bear. They all thank Phil Collins for the delicious pasta.

Shortly after Baby Bear sees the guitar. "Phil guitar!" said Baby bear. Phil Collins tells Baby Bear that we are going to play music. Baby Bear says "yay". So Phil Collins opens the guitar case and hands Baby Bear the guitar. He then gives Papa Bear a Full-Sized guitar and Mummy bear a Medium sized guitar. Phil Collins and Baby Bear started singing in the air tonight. It was cute because Baby Bear has a little squeaky baby voice. The next song was Easy Lover. Papa bear and Mamma Bear were playing along while Phil Collins and Baby Bear sang.

MINECRAFT TIPS & TRICKS

- [] If you see a zombie villager, throw a splash potion of weakness at it then feed it a golden apple. Then wait 5 minutes. If you have done everything right, the zombie villager will turn into a normal villager and you will have a discount on all of its trades!
- [] In the Java Edition, find a patch of clay in a swamp. Then find the north most block of clay then dig straight down. If you have done everything right and are in Java Edition, you will dig straight down into diamonds!
- [] When fighting monsters or other players, if you are playing on the Java Edition, jump right before swinging your sword. This is called a "critical hit" and deals more damage than a normal hit. This also works in other versions but is not always ideal. Keep in mind, in the Java Edition, if you are playing on a server where you are able to block your sword, it is not a good idea to go for critical hits.
- [] In the Java Edition, use axes for fighting monsters and use a sword for fighting players. In Bedrock Edition (phones, iPads, tablets, consoles and sometimes computers), just use a sword for fighting
- [] On a computer, press F3 to open the debug menu. It has plenty of useful data and information that even good players use. Press F3 again to close the debug menu. (Please note this currently only works in the Java Edition)
